Course Information

Units of Credit: 6
Contact hours per week: 3

Parallel Teaching: None

Course Aims:

This course provides the opportunity for students to undertake self-initiated, independent study in the area of Photomedia. It focuses on the student's development of a self-directed body of work that demonstrates an understanding, exploration and refinement of the concepts central to their practice. The course addresses and critically refines the knowledge students have gained in Photomedia 1B – 3B through lectures, demonstrations, critiques and group discussions or presentations. The works produced will be an investigation of research and practical possibilities that are initiated by the student and undertaken with lecturer supervision.

Students are required to submit a written proposal that forms the basis of an agreed program of study. The proposal clearly outlines the content and the form of the proposed inquiry as well as a schedule for practical work. The proposal work is developed in consultation with the course lecturer.

Students are required to participate in seminar presentations that outline the cultural and art influences that affect and inspire the production of their work. The seminar usually takes the form of a slide, video or PowerPoint presentation and includes references to artists whose works are of particular interest or influence to students.

Students are expected to demonstrate evidence of the experimentation associated with their work-in-progress throughout the session. This should include evidence of both the critical development of concepts and the process of technical experimentation as well as propositions for the resolution of the work. There is a review of work held mid-session to evaluate progress.

It is expected that students will continue to refine and advance their digital technical skills and other relevant media to a standard appropriate to the concerns in their work. The appropriateness of the means of production, the form of its realisation, and its appropriate documentation are issues of concern at this level of the course. Students are directed toward an analysis and critical awareness of current visual arts practices and issues. Issues of production and documentation within the Contemporary Visual Arts and Media Arts industries are emphasised. Interdisciplinary studies are encouraged where relevant to the projects undertaken.

Health and safety issues across both analogue and digital environments are addressed and applied as appropriate to the course work activities at this level.

Teaching Strategies:

Teaching comprises lectures, demonstrations, workshops, tutorials and group critiques. Students are expected to maintain a visual diary of their process and related influences that provides continuity to their work and experience.

Computing Requirements

As per Computing Services Unit

Safety Information

You have a responsibility to not do anything that risks the safety or health of your fellow students and also staff.

This will involve informing your lecturer of any safety risks you become aware of, and also following the directions of staff in relation to such issues as equipment usage, and safety equipment and clothing.

You are responsible for:

- adhering to UNSW and COFA OHS policies and procedures,
- following instructions on safe work methods,
- promptly reporting hazards or accidents
- ensuring your conduct does not endanger others.

Emergencies and evacuation

In case of emergency you should follow the instructions on the emergency procedures displays, which are located on each level.

The emergency phone number is 9385-6666 (not 000).

During evacuations always follow the directions given by fire wardens and proceed to the emergency assembly area, which is in front of the campus art store (red oval on diagram).

First aid information

If you are injured or are hurt in any way inform your supervisor. All accidents and incidents must be reported. The names and contact details of first aid officers on campus are displayed on the green and white first aid posters. Security staff are also trained first aid officers.

Electrical safety

Students should ensure that any portable electrical equipment they bring onto the campus (such as laptop computer power supplies) are tested and tagged. Such equipment will not be able to be used on campus if not tagged. Testing can be done at the Resource Centre.

Assessment

Learning Outcomes:

On completion of Photomedia 4B students should exhibit awareness, knowledge and understanding of:

- · their individual areas of interest
- how to take responsibility for self-motivation in the direction and development of their fine art practice
- how to construct a research plan and approach for a self-directed program of study supported by appropriate written and visual material
- how to focus and refine the intent of their work, within the context of photomedia and related practices, and within the broader arena of contemporary visual art and culture

- the historical and contemporary context of their practice
- how to self-critique work to expand ideas and develop directions for future practice
- how to advance, refine and consolidate technical skills as appropriate to the work undertaken
- the commitment required to develop and refine conceptual concerns

The course will be assessed as follows:

Project 1 = 25% Project 2 = 20% Project 3 = 25% Project 4 = 30%

Assessment Criteria

Each project is described below. Make sure you read this document thoroughly; a common cause of students failing or not gaining high marks is often that they have failed to read the brief.

Usually you will be assessed on the following:

- Satisfaction of requirements As per project descriptions
- Level of commitment and motivation The level of application to set tasks, the ability to persevere, the level of involvement and degree of participation in lectures, seminars, workshops and discussions, and the level of professionalism.
- Recognition of individual responsibility The ability to be self-directed in determining objectives and appropriateness of resources.
- Evidence of critical process The willingness to instigate research and to analyse information. The ability to synthesise research and experience in creative expression. The ability for self-critical analysis in the evaluation of progress. The ability to articulate your intention and to discuss your objectives in relation to contemporary visual arts practice.
- Technical skill appropriate to the work undertaken The appropriate choice and use of your chosen media

PROJECT 1:	PART A: Exercise PART B: One page bibliography and key article	10%
	PART B. One page bibliography and key article	15%
PROJECT 2:	Presentation	20%
PROJECT 3:	Mid-session review of proposal work	25%
PROJECT 4:	Final presentation / review	30%

PROJECT 1

PART A: EXERCISE: In week 2, you will be asked to 'pick a word from a hat'. This exercise requires you to make a visual response — one photograph — to your word. You may respond to the meaning of the word, or respond to its visual appearance, or respond to the sound made when the word is spoken or respond in some other way of your choosing. But with haste, a sense of play and critical inquiry, make one photograph — analogue or digital, colour or black & white, printed no smaller than 20 x 25 cm.

NB: You will be asked to complete this exercise for both 4A and 4B classes ie: you will receive two words and make two images. Presentation will occur in your 4B class.

PART B: BIBLIOGRAPHY AND KEY ARTICLE Submit a one-page bibliography of texts that are relevant and influential to the conceptual development and form of your work. Texts may be obtained from a number of different sources (books, magazines, internet, video documentary, film, lectures etc) but you must include at least three references to artists' work. Attach a copy of at least one article that reflects appropriate research into the direction and nature of the critical content of your work and its development. Also, complete a 50 word synopsis that summarises the content of the article. The synopsis should not quote from the article, but should be a concise summary of your interpretation of its content. Please make two copies (for 4A and 4B lecturers).

Please note: a bibliography that consists entirely of internet references is unacceptable. Produce two copies and hand in one copy to your 4A Lecturer and one copy to your 4B Lecturer.

PROJECT 2: PRESENTATION Present a short talk (15 minutes) on the cultural and art influences that affect and inspire the production of your work. The talk must take the form of a slide, video, performance or PowerPoint presentation and must include reference to artists whose works are of influence to your own. Think expansively re the subject matter of the images / texts you present.

PROJECT 3: MID-SESSION REVIEW OF PROPOSAL WORK You are expected to demonstrate evidence of the experimentation associated with your work-in-progress throughout the session. This should include evidence of both the critical development of your concepts and the process of technical experimentation as well as propositions for the resolution of the work. Install and present your work for the mid-session review with consideration of the most appropriate presentation that enhances the aims of your work. See notice board for details and schedule.

PROJECT 4: FINAL PRESENTATION / REVIEW You are required to present your FINAL, FINISHED outcomes for the session. Both 4A and 4B Lecturers will undertake Review and Assessment. Students will not be in attendance at these reviews, however you are invited to view the work of your peers. Install and present your work for the end-of-session review with consideration of the most appropriate presentation that enhances the aims of your work. See notice board for details.

INDIVIDUAL TUTORIAL NOTE:

It is essential that you prepare well for your tutorial appointments so that the time with your lecturer is spent productively. It is not satisfactory to turn up for tutorials with no material evidence (photographs, video, sketches etc) of artwork in progress or no evidence of substantial progress since your last consultation.

Remember to take note of your tutorial appointment times, which will be specified on the notice board (sign-up sheets). A replacement appointment cannot be guaranteed if you miss your allocated time slot.

Academic honesty and plagiarism

What is Plagiarism?

Plagiarism is the presentation of the thoughts or work of another as one's own.* Examples include:

- direct duplication of the thoughts or work of another, including by copying material, ideas or concepts from a book, article, report or other written document (whether published or unpublished), composition, artwork, design, drawing, circuitry, computer program or software, web site, Internet, other electronic resource, or another person's assignment without appropriate acknowledgement;
- paraphrasing another person's work with very minor changes keeping the meaning, form and/or progression of ideas of the original;
- piecing together sections of the work of others into a new whole;
- presenting an assessment item as independent work when it has been produced in whole or part in collusion with other people, for example, another student or a tutor; and
- claiming credit for a proportion a work contributed to a group assessment item that is greater than that actually contributed.†

For the purposes of this policy, submitting an assessment item that has already been submitted for academic credit elsewhere may be considered plagiarism.

Knowingly permitting your work to be copied by another student may also be considered to be plagiarism.

Note that an assessment item produced in oral, not written, form, or involving live presentation, may similarly contain plagiarised material.

The inclusion of the thoughts or work of another with attribution appropriate to the academic discipline does not amount to plagiarism.

The Learning Centre website is main repository for resources for staff and students on plagiarism and academic honesty. These resources can be located via:

www.lc.unsw.edu.au/plagiarism

The Learning Centre also provides substantial educational written materials, workshops, and tutorials to aid students, for example, in:

- correct referencing practices;
- paraphrasing, summarising, essay writing, and time management;
- appropriate use of, and attribution for, a range of materials including text, images, formulae and concepts.

Individual assistance is available on request from The Learning Centre.

Students are also reminded that careful time management is an important part of study and one of the identified causes of plagiarism is poor time management. Students should allow sufficient time for research, drafting, and the proper referencing of sources in preparing all assessment items.

Continual course improvement

Periodically student evaluative feedback on the course is gathered, using among other means, UNSW's Course and Teaching Evaluation and Improvement (CATEI) Process. Student feedback is taken seriously, and continual improvements are made to the course based in part on such feedback. Significant changes to the course will be communicated to subsequent cohorts of students taking the course.

Also, where the web page talks about NewSouth Q, you should use the COFA Student Centre, Ground Floor B Block.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY

Computer usage and ergonomics

Using computers for long periods has the potential to cause overuse injuries. These injuries can be minimised by correct set-up of your workstation. Advise on how to set-up your workstation correctly can be found at http://www.cofa.unsw.edu.au/units/csu/staffinfo/

Student OHS responsibilities whilst on campus

Students are responsible for adhering to UNSW and COFA OHS policies and procedures, following instructions on safe work methods, promptly reporting hazards or accidents and ensuring that their conduct does not endanger others. Links to OH&S website information as follows:

http://www.hr.unsw.edu.au/ohswc/ohs/ohs_home.html http://www.cofa.unsw.edu.au/schoolsunits/ohs/index.html

Activities away from campus

For any off campus activities relating to your course work a field work risk assessment must be completed and have your supervisors sign off. Forms are available from the Campus OHS coordinator or your supervisor.

First aid

If you are injured or are hurt in any way inform your supervisor. All accidents and incidents must be reported. The names and contact details of first aid officers on campus are displayed in the green and white first aid posters. Security staff are also trained first aid officers.

Advice and instructions to students regarding workplace safety and hazardous substances:

Students should be aware of their responsibility to avoid causing injuries to themselves or to others. These injuries could include; eyestrain, hearing damage, back, neck and repetitive strain injury (RSI), burns, chemical poisoning, inhalation damage, lacerations and the like. Students using, or planning to use, unorthodox materials, or materials/processes/performances in a potentially damaging manner in their class, or related work, ARE REQUIRED to complete a Risk Assessment Form. This form must be signed by the lecturer and lodged with the relevant Technical Officer or School Administrative Assistant. Unorthodox materials are considered to be material, solvents, chemicals, paints, electricity etc. not covered by standard practice or tuition within the area. All potentially dangerous materials MUST be used in consultation with the mandatory material safety data sheets (MSDS) available at the point of acquisition of such materials. It is UNSW policy that no bodily parts or fluids are used on any campus for any purpose.

Public Liability

The University has appropriate insurance cover whereby you, the student and the University are indemnified in the event of you, while on work experience, placement or assignment (including such things as film/video/photo shoots, off-site installations etc) become legally liable for any injury to any person or damage to property caused by your negligent act.

A Letter of Indemnity Template is available for download from:

http://www.riskman.unsw.edu.au/insurance/indemnity.shtml

This should be signed by the relevant Lecturer or Head of School.
