S2 HPW4 C12

For subject outlines see page 51 of this handbook.

Media Art

COFA1101
Media Art IA
S1 HPW3 C10

This subject focuses upon the imaginative translation of thought and experience into two-dimensional and other 'image' forms, and upon the generation of imagery from a wide range of stimuli.

One of the main emphasis will be upon working photographically and with associated processes. Broader methods of image-making such as drawing, three dimensional and time-based approaches will also be addressed, as will questions of intent, content and context, and the development of personal visual languages.

COFA1102
Media Art IB
S1 HPW3 C10

This subject forms an introduction to the imaginative and personal fabrication of form, as well as to the perception and articulation of space, both as a medium in its own right and as the medium in which all perception and plastic experience takes place.

A wide range of media and processes will be explored, not simply those that are explicitly sculptural and three-dimensional, but also, where appropriate two-dimensional or time-based ones.

Issues will be explored related to perceptual and other experience, symbolism and metaphor, narrative and scale, function and identity. This subject will focus on current sculptural and related practices, including installation, work sited on, or deriving from the body, and work developing from an awareness of materials and process.

COFA1103
Media Art IC
S1 HPW3 C10

This course provides an introduction to the broad range of ways of working that may be described as time-based, or that actively explore time as a plastic medium in its own right.

Ideas tackled might therefore emerge in the form of moving imagery such as film/video and animated or kinetic work in two or three dimensions, along with performance, work based on or involving the use of sound, and other processes such as drawing, writing or photography in which time is an active element.

Students are encouraged to develop a working-practice founded upon their own ideas and experiences, supported by an inventive attitude to a wide spectrum of media.

COFA1104
Media Art ID
S1 HPW2 C8

This subject provides an arena where the various concerns of the rest of the first year Media Art course are brought together to address the complex relationships existing between the student as an individual, their work and ideas, and the living culture of which they are part.

The subject consists firstly of 'forum' sessions, which focus upon the work of particular individuals (practicing artists and others) who participate in these sessions, and secondly of 'integration' sessions. These, through a variety of projects, discussions and other initiatives, concentrate more directly on the individual student and on issues raised by their work, including, as the session progresses, decisions concerning their future subject specialization.

COFA1105
Media Art 2A
S2 HPW3 C10
Prerequisite: COFA1101

This subject is designed to provide a transition from the breadth of experience of the first session, to the increasingly personalised program of subsequent sessions. During this period students will be able to map out with increasing certainty the natural bounds of their own artistic enquiry. This subject consists of a series of projects, which are primarily defined by idea and content, so that a trajectory that is individually stimulating and exploratory may be pursued by each student. The lack of constraint upon medium or dimensionality means students may choose to continue working as diversely and divergently as during the first session, or to concentrate more specifically upon modes of working particular to a chosen major area of study.

COFA1106
Media Art 2B
S2 HPW3 C10
Prerequisite: COFA1102

In this studio based subject the students will begin studies related to their specialized area chosen from the following: Photographic Studies (image technologies/image manipulation), 4D (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay).

While each of these may be considered as a self-contained area of study, it is also possible to opt for an interdisciplinary synthesis of the above. In this subject there will be an emphasis on an analysis of the students' conceptual development, the generation of ideas, visual language, acquisition and application of skills, manipulation of materials and interaction with context.

Media Art 2C
S2 HPW3 C10
Prerequisite: COFA1103

This subject consists of a series of workshops based across the School of Media Art, which are designed to extend from and expand upon the basic technical inductions encountered during the first session. Specific and adaptable methodologies and processes will be explored, enabling a more resolved synthesis from the conceptual beginnings of a work to its realisation.

COFA1108
Media Art 2D
S2 HPW2 C8
Prerequisite: COFA1104

This subject provides a continuing arena for tutorial, contextual and personal support. Attention will be paid to a continuing breadth of stimulus and thought, and to specific advice appropriate to the confirmation of students' future directions.

There will be a continuing program of visiting artists and other practitioners, plus projects designed to stimulate awareness and debate.

Studio Art

COFA1001
Studio Art IA
S1 HPW3 C10

This subject will introduce students to basic concepts and skills in printmaking. Students will be encouraged to understand both the inter-relationship of form and content and the creative possibilities of various media and techniques. The importance of analytical observation will be emphasised. Students will be expected to attain a basic competence in printmaking by the end of session. One printmaking discipline will be studied.

COFA1002
Studio Art IB
S1 HPW3 C10

This subject will introduce students to basic concepts and skills in painting. Students will be encouraged to understand both the inter-relationship of form and content and the creative possibilities of various media and techniques. The importance of analytical observation will be emphasised. Students will be expected to attain a basic competence in painting by the end of session.

| This is a studio based subject with an emphasis on placing the students' practice in the context of art history and studio theory. This is addressed during tutorials and crit sessions in the studio, seminars presented by students sharing their personal research and issues pertinent to their practice and interaction with visiting artists. Projects on fundamental issues will underpin studio practice, leading to self initiated projects appropriate to the following areas of speciality: Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above. | This is a studio based subject with an emphasis on the conceptual development and contextual implications of the student's work. These issues will be addressed through contributions to and participation in seminars, tutorials, crit sessions, lectures, and presentations fostering a community of scholarship and debate. Self initiated work will be supported by projects that address specific fundamental issues in contemporary art practice appropriate to the students chosen area of speciality selected from the following: Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above. | In this subject students will investigate and imaginatively interpret significant concepts and conventions of the disciplines within Studio Art. In consultation with lecturers, students will begin to develop a program of studio studies which reflects their individual interests and which may be built upon and expanded in subsequent sessions. |

| This is a studio based subject with an emphasis on an analysis of the students' conceptual development, their generation of ideas, visual language, application and development of skills, manipulation of materials and interaction with context. The production of works will be supported by feedback in formal contexts such as exhibitions, screenings and performances, appropriate to the following areas of speciality: Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound / installation / performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery / bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above. | This is a studio based subject that pursues methodologies through extensive visual, technological and conceptual research. The work produced by students will be supported by critical evaluation particularly in the context of exhibitions, screenings and performances within chosen areas of speciality. Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above. | This subject will examine various media, techniques and aspects of the disciplines within Studio Art. Students will examine various motifs as vehicles for the expression of ideas and as subjects. Although there will be an emphasis on direct observation, other approaches will be explored. Students will be encouraged to develop concepts relating to the characteristics of specific media. |

| This subject involves basic workshop technologies. Workshops are a resource across the major area, Media Art, and are accessible by students from all areas of speciality. Students will acquire basic skills and experiment with materials and technologies appropriate to their studio practice. Areas of speciality available are: Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above. | This subject allows students to broaden their basic skills base in order to underpin the individual development of studio practice. Through an increased understanding of materiality, process and technologies students will be better equipped to resolve ideas at an increasingly professional standard in Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above. | This subject is designed to enable students to extend their knowledge of basic principles of the disciplines within Studio Art. Thematically based, it explores the different ways in which the art of this period may be approached. Issues such as iconography and representation (epicene) will be explored. The focus will be on the relationship between the artist and the viewer, and the role of the artwork in society. The subject will also consider the impact of the artist on the world around them, and the ways in which they have influenced society and culture. |

Third Year

Media Art

COFA1117
Media Art 5A

S1 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Media Art 4A

A studio based subject that places the students' progression in the context of contemporary art issues through participation in and individual contribution to presentations and discussion. The production of self initiated works will be supported by the submission of projects/proposals.

Emphasis will be placed on individual's work and methodologies in relation to personal theoretical issues relative to their chosen area of specialty - Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above.

COFA1118
Media Art 5B

S1 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Media Art 4B

This is a studio based subject that pursues the initiation of a personalised work program in consultation with the students' lecturers. Students will be encouraged to liaise with relevant practitioners in their area of specialization to form an understanding of their emergent practice in a contemporary context. Their chosen areas of specialization may be selected from Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above.

COFA1119
Media Art 5C

S1 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Media Art 4C

This subject requires the students to refine specific skills at an advanced level, with a focus on the synthesis of conceptual concerns, representation, process and presentation in their studio practice in Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above.

COFA1120
Media Art 5D

S1 HPW2 C11

Prerequisite: Media Art 4D

This subject is designed to explore further major issues of contemporary practice. In particular it will investigate the ways in which practices and media, i.e. film, photography, video, sculpture and installation articulate themselves in relation to contemporary theoretical issues. The different means, narratives and discourses which have evolved in the areas will be explored. The subject will also examine correlations of form and practice in contemporary art.

COFA1121

Media Art 5A

S2 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Media Art 5A

This subject is studio based with an emphasis on the philosophical and conceptual context of art making. Students are required to produce self initiated works of a professional standard to be exhibited in the undergraduate exhibition at the completion of their course.

These works will be a culmination of intensive and rigorous research and study in their chosen area of specialty such as, Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above.

COFA1122

Media Art 6B

S2 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Media Art 5B

A studio based subject in which students produce self initiated works in consultation with their lecturers for exhibition in the undergraduate exhibition at the completion of their course.

Integral to the above, students will be required to furnish support material and refine existing documentation concerned with their areas of study throughout the course.

The works produced by the students will be a culmination of intensive research and study in their chosen area of specialty such as Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above.

COFA1123

Media Art 6C

S2 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Media Art 5C

Within this subject the student will concentrate on the production of a substantial body of work which demonstrates an understanding of the concepts, practice and contexts relative to their individual art practice within their chosen area of specialty.

This area of specialty will be selected from the following - Photographic Studies (image technologies, image manipulation), 4D Studies (film, video art, sound/installation/performance), Sculpture (object/installation, jewellery/bodyworks, clay) and/or combinations of the above.

COFA1124

Media Art 6D

S2 HPW2 C11

Prerequisite: Media Art 5D

This subject is designed to assist in the transition from the category of student practitioner to that of professional. Issues relevant to the students' developing practice within Media Art, are dealt with in this subject, and are related to considerations and strategies for a functional understanding of practices beyond this institution.

Concerns appropriate to practical working and also theoretical aspects of establishing studio situations, presentations, funding, taxation, copyright, subsistence and insights into the present art environment are explored, in addition to other ethical and legal considerations necessary for the contemporary practitioner.

In consultation with lecturers students will nominate research projects which demonstrate an understanding of the disciplines within Studio Art.

COFA1017

Studio Art 5A

S1 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Studio Art 4A

In this subject students will concentrate upon their major creative interests. Students will be required to initiate and execute a body of studio work which demonstrates the relationship between their own work and current art practices and concepts. Students will nominate areas of individual investigation with the guidance of lecturers. A proposal outlining intended studies may be required.

COFA1018

Studio Art 5B

S1 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Studio Art 4B

This subject will continue to build upon concepts and skills developed in previous sessions. Students will investigate the creative possibilities of media appropriate to the expression of individual ideas. Students will be expected to sustain their investigations with a closer focus over an extended period.

COFA1019

Studio Art 5C

S1 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Studio Art 4C

Lecturers will nominate research projects which students undertake in specific areas in the disciplines within Studio Art. Research is studio-based with written augmentation where appropriate.

COFA1020

Studio Art 5D

S1 HPW2 C11

Prerequisite: Studio Art 4D

This subject is designed to introduce the systematic theorising about art, known as aesthetics. The overall aim is to enable students to gain a critical understanding of the many inter-relationships between theories of art and artistic practice and critical response. 'Aesthetics' will examine those thinkers, from the early Greeks through the 18th century to the present day, who have helped form and structure our ways of thinking about art. The subject will be structured around a consideration of four major topics in aesthetics: representation and mimesis; beauty and sublime; taste and value; and expression.

COFA1021

Studio Art 6A

S2 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Studio Art 5A

This subject consolidates and extends the knowledge and skills developed in Studio Art 5A. Students will be encouraged to develop their ability to express and assess their own and others' work in the context of other areas of studies. Students will be required to demonstrate an understanding of the relationship between personal and professional practice achieved in their studio practice.

COFA1022

Studio Art 6B

S2 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Studio Art 5B

This subject requires that students demonstrate a high level of competence and creativity in the production of a body of work which demonstrates an understanding of media, its imagery and its meaning in the context of current art practices.

COFA1023

Studio Art 6C

S2 HPW4 C12

Prerequisite: Studio Art 5C

In consultation with lecturers students will nominate research projects in specific areas in the disciplines within Studio Art. Research is studio-based with written augmentation where appropriate.

COFA1024

Studio Art 6D

S2 HPW2 C11

Prerequisite: Studio Art 5D

This subject introduces students to the professional practices within the disciplines within Studio Art. These will include setting up studio works, studio health and safety, documentation and record keeping, gallery systems, works, and the role and responsibilities of the artist.
