COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The Bachelor of Digital Media (BDM) Honours program is a one-year full time program, at a higher level of study. In their Honours year students undertake self-nominated research into areas of Digital Media. The aim of the Honours year is to provide the Honours student with the opportunity through critical inquiry and practice to develop a research project that is presented at the end of the year as a project and research paper.

The Bachelor of Digital Media encourages a diverse range of media practice and recognises the possible complexity of the media. It is with this in mind that the BDM Honours program may include, where appropriate collaborative work.

COURSE CONTENT:

The Honours year will emphasize the development of research skills and a research project within digital Media and a research project comprising of written thesis and production work.

Advice to Students regarding workplace safety and hazardous substances

Students should be aware of the requirement to avoid eyestrain, back, neck and repetitive strain injury (rsi) through correct posture, chair positioning and taking a break at least once every hour. Students using, or planning to use, unorthodox materials in their class work are required to complete a Risk Assessment Sheet. This form must be signed by the lecturer and lodged with the Technical Assistant. Unorthodox materials are considered to be materials, solvents, chemicals and paints not covered by standard practice or tuition within the area.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

To undertake self-nominated research into areas of Digital Media.

The completed studio-based research works appropriate to the field of study will be formally published or displayed at the end of the course.

ASSESSMENT:

To qualify for a passing grade all students must complete all set work, which is to be submitted on time. Where absences in excess of three (3) classes occur, students may be given a fail grade (UF). Students must be punctual and participate in all class activities. The student should be expected to show evidence of the achievement of the course's objectives.

One formal evaluation of Satisfactory, or Unsatisfactory will be made mid-session and students will be informed by their class lecturer of this determination.
